INTERESTING MEETING OF HENDERSON COUNTY CLUB

Boys at University to Keep in Close Touch With Schools of County. Officers Elected.

(Special to The Hustler.)

Chapel Hill, Nov. 1.—The Henderson county boys, at the University of North Carolina, met Saturday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pace, on Cameron Drive. Those present were: Messrs. H. G. Hunter, W. C. Rymer, H. M. Smith, W. E. Lyda, Guy Brookshire, Mr. Whitmire and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Pace. All members were present with the exception of Frank Bell, of Tuxedo, who was away with the foot ball team. After a social hour refreshments were served. Immediately thereafter the club went into a business session. The following officers were elected for the coming year: H. G. Hunter, president; L. J. Pace, vice president, W. E. Lyda, secretary and treasurer. Mr. Rymer, the retiring president, addressed the club at some length, speaking of the growth of the club in the last few years and its prospects for the future. Mr. Hunter, the president-elect, followed Mr. Rymer. Mr. Hunter outlined the work for the club for the ensuing year. Mr. Pace followed Mr. Hunter and spoke of the relation of the County Club to the Home County. Mr. Smith discussed the necessity of the Club's getting in touch with the schools of the home county.

The club is preparing to put forth a special effort in order to get in touch with the schools of Henderson County, and will, in the very near future, announce their plans through the county papers.

Upon the motion of Mr. Smith, Mrs. Pace was elected honorary member. She is the first lady to have the honor of being elected to membership in the club.

The club while not having as many members as in previous years is doing everything possible to place the Henderson County Club among the leading county clubs at the University. All the members are very active in college life. Messrs. Smith and Rymer graduates of last year, are registered in the law department. Mr. Lyda is studying medicine, and Mr. Brookshire, pharmacy. Messrs. Pace and Hunter are taking work leading towards A. B. degree. Mr. Pace is also engaged in community activities. He has charge of the prayer meetings services at the First Baptist church, and is actively engaged in Sunday work. Mr. Pace accepted the invitation of the Hughes-Linney Republican club, of Durham, and discussed state and national affairs before them, Tuesday, October 24.

Mr. Whitmire, a former member of the pharmacy department of the University, and member of the club is here doing special work. Mr. Whitmire will return to Hendersonville soon.

C. H. DODGE HEAVIEST CONTRIBUTOR TO DEMOCRATIC FUND.

Cleveland H. Dodge, who was graduated from Princeton with President Wilson in '79, heads the list of contributors to the democratic campaign fund, according to a preliminary report which will be filed with the clerk of the house of representatives tomorrow by Wilbur W. Marsh, treasurer of the democratic national committee.

The report made public accounts for contributions of $1,006,283, the amount received up to and including October 24. Of this sum, Mr. Dodge gave $50,000. Since then he has contributed an additional $29,000, making the total $79,000. R. J. Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, N. C., has contributed $10,000.

The number of contributors was given as 41,882. The amount received in contributions of less than $100, was $261,846. The contributions from those giving more than $100 was $744,436. One entry reads: "Woodrow Wilson, Washington, D. C., $2,500."

Four years ago the total amount received by the Democratic national committee for campaign purposes was reported as $1,110,952.

NATIONS OF WORLD MUST GET TOGETHER.

Taking advantage of a strenuous visit to Cincinnati to discuss the relation of the United States to the European war, President Wilson declared that "this is the last war that involves the world that the United States can keep out of." He gave as his reason his belief that "the business of neutrality is over," and that "war now has such a scale that the position of neutrals sooner or later becomes intolerable."

He added that the nationals of the world must get together and say "no body can hereafter be neutral as respects the disturbance of the world's peace for an object which the world's opinion cannot sanction."

After denying the republican claim that the business prosperity of the United States during the last two years has been due to trade created by the war the president ridiculed predictions that after the war Europe will overwhelm this nation by its economic strength and "dump" in the United States goods now being stored up for that purpose. He asserted that exports of everything that goes to supply armies makes only one per cent of the total of American commerce.

"We ought not to turn to these people in year, but in sympathy," said the president.

HER MOTHER LOVE SUPREME.

Aged Woman's Pathetic Defense of Worthless Son a Miracle of Loyal Affection.

Joe had violently quarreled with a woman, the proprietor of the house in which his disreputable wife lived, because she withheld from him a part of his wife's earnings, and in the altercation had killed her—a situation, one would say, which it would be difficult for even a mother to condone. But not at all; her thin gray face worked with emotion, her trembling hands restlessly pulled at her shabby skirt as the hands of the dying pluck at the sheets, but she put all the vitality she could muster into his defense. She told us he had legally married the girl who supported him, "although Lily had been so long in that life that few men would have done it; of course such a girl must have a protector or everybody would fleece her; poor Lily said to the day of her death that he was the kindest man she ever knew and treated her the whitest; that she herself was to blame for the murder because she told on the old miser, and Joe was so hot-headed she might have known that he would draw a gun for her." The gasping mother concluded. "He was always that handsome and had such a way. One winter when I was scrubbing in an office building I'd never get home much before twelve o'clock, but Joe would open the door for me just as pleasant as if he hadn't been waked out of a sound sleep." She was so triumphantly unconscious of the incongruity of a sturdy son in bed while his mother earned his food, that her auditors said never a word, and in silence we saw a hero evolved before our eyes; a defender of the oppressed, the best beloved of his mother, who was losing his high spirits and eating his heart out behind prison bars. He could well defy the world even there, surrounded as he was by that invincible affection which assures both the fortunate and unfortunate alike that we are loved, not according to our deserts, but in response to some profounder law.—Jane Addams, in the Atlantic.

"Every seat in the trolley was occupied, when a group of women got in. Going through the car to collect fares the conductor noticed a man who, he thought, was asleep.

"Wake up!" shouted the conductor. "I wasn't asleep," said the passenger.

"Not asleep," snapped the conductor. "Then what did you have your eyes closed for?"

"It was because of the crowded condition of the car," explained the passenger. "I hate to see women standing."

Saints of old wore hair shirts as penance, but they would have rejoiced in a saw-edge collar that has been in the laundry too often.
